It's a different way to meet this year.

As we face off with a worldwide pandemic we're finding ways to come together.

Although the live 2020 UHMS Annual Scientific Meeting and Chapter meetings have been cancelled for this year you can still enjoy – and learn from – their most distinctive offerings.

The Society comes in a virtual format through focused versions of both the 2020 ASM and Chapter meetings as enduring materials, with two planned keynotes and plenary lectures for the ASM as well as a snapshot of the top lecture topics from each of the four regional Chapters, all from our top-notch faculty.

Both sets of materials will be available for CME/CEU credit at the UHMS Online CME Portal (www.courses-uhms.org) for a registration fee later this year.

The ASM abstracts are in the UHM Journal 47-2, available to Members and Registrants.

Stay informed at www.uhms.org. If you have questions send them to uhms@uhms.org.

Stay safe. We'll see you online – and next year.
