

American Medical Association Survey

The American Medical Association (AMA) Physician Practice Information (PPI) Survey is underway, and they urge all selected physicians to actively engage in this effort. The intent of the survey is to collect updated and accurate data on practice costs. These data have not been updated for over 15 years and it is critically important to update these data to ensure accurate payment. See <https://www.ama-assn.org/practice-management/medicare-medicaid/physician-answers-survey-will-shape-future-medicare-pay> for more information about this survey.

Mathematica is helping the AMA run this survey. Your practice may receive an email (from ppisurvey@mathematica-mp.com) and an USPS priority mail packet from Mathematica that contains supporting information and a link to the survey. Help the AMA help you to update Medicare physician payment.
