My Hallowed Ground: Reminiscences of a Flight Surgeon, by Dr. Russell B. Rayman, is available on Amazon or at www.dorrancebookstore.com.

The book chronicles his experiences as a flight surgeon with the U.S. Air Force, the space program, and as Executive Director of the Aerospace Medical Association spanning the years 1962–2010. The stories are told in a series of anecdotes embellished with historical references, personal insight, and, at times, emotion.

All royalties will be donated to the Aerospace Medical Association Foundation. Dr. Rayman will be at the Foundation booth at the 2025 AsMA–UHMS Annual Scientific Meeting in Atlanta, GA, for book–signing.
